

First Travel Insurance

Having the right insurance gives you the security of knowing that you are covered for those unexpected costs.

Sometimes things don't go to plan. Your car may breakdown or be involved in an accident, which could mean you miss your flight or departure. You could lose your bag, mobile phone, computer or they may be damaged or stolen. Worst of all you could end up having to make an unexpected visit to the hospital. Having the right insurance gives you the security of knowing that you are covered for those unexpected costs.

Travel Insurance

If you're looking for a travel insurance policy for a short break or a longer trip, at Outgoing we believe you should be offered a wide selection of great value travel insurance policies. Whilst the choice of travel insurance provider lies with you, we have found that the products offered by First Travel Insurance have met the varying requirements of our customers.

First Travel Insurance provide cover for many sports and activities, including winter sports and scuba diving. All pre-existing medical conditions are considered.
